A. This class is a great introduction into upper level history courses. This will make my life so much easier by having this class as a base.

B. There needs to be more time for assignments. Account for some delays in collecting assignments.

A. For the first time with teaching this class the professor did very well setting it up. She taught writing very well and called opinions from other faculty in the department.

Professor Kuhl asks insightful questions about students work that helps narrow focus. She is encouraging and provided constructive criticism additionally she is available to help outside of class.

Dr. Kuhl has a great teaching method and wonderful personality. She is my most relatable professor at UW Oshkosh. For the first time to offer this class, time management is a must.
